Abstract:
In accordance with Resolution No. 194 of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated April 27, 2001, and Resolution No. 64 of the regional khokim dated May 2, 2001, large-scale measures were implemented in the Bukhara region to encourage World War II participants. Based on the resolution, 2,347 war veterans in the region received 14 million soums from the budget. Material assistance in the amount of 262,000 soums was allocated, and festive tables and gifts were presented by khokimiyats, enterprises, and organizations.

Key words: "Nuroniy" Foundation, "Mahalla" Foundation, "Spirituality and Enlightenment" Center, "One Cup of Tea" meetings

In accordance with the Resolution of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. 194 dated April 27, 2001, 2,347 war participants in the region were allocated 6,000 soums each for a total of 14 million soums. 262,000 soums were allocated from the budget as financial assistance. Additionally, khokimiyats, enterprises, and organizations prepared festive tables and presented gifts. Since the tasks specified in the resolution have been fully fulfilled, I request that you authorize its removal from control.

In accordance with the Resolution of the Khokim of the region No. 64 dated May 2, 2001, and the Resolution of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. 194 dated April 27, 2001, "On incentivizing participants of the Second World War," the city khokim's Resolution No. 747 dated May 4, 2001, was adopted and sent to the relevant enterprises and organizations. In connection with May 9 — "Day of Remembrance and Honor," 461 participants and disabled veterans of the Great Patriotic War living in the city were distributed a cash prize of 6,000 soums each. 325 war participants and disabled people in the F. Khojaev district received a total of 1 million soums. A cash prize of 950,000 soums and food products worth 487,500 soums were distributed to 136 participants and disabled veterans of the war in the Tukimachilik district, along with industrial goods worth 2,500 soums. Industrial goods worth 2,500 soums were also distributed to 19 participants of the Afghan War. The Khokimiyat of Kogon city writes to inform you that in order to ensure the implementation of the Resolution of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated April 21, 2001, "On encouraging participants of the Second World War," in connection with May 9 — the Day of Remembrance and Honor, 109 participants and disabled veterans of the Great Patriotic War across the city were solemnly presented with money in the amount of 6 thousand soums each, totaling 654,000 soums.

In order to ensure the implementation of this resolution in the Karakul district, the district khokim's resolution No. 258 dated May 4, 2001, was adopted, and an action plan for the district khokim was developed. Based on Resolution No. 194 of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan, all 180 veterans who participated in the Second World War were awarded a cash prize of 6,000 (six thousand) soums. Deputy district khokims congratulated 12 war veterans who were absent from the festive celebrations for valid reasons at home and presented them with cash prizes.

In accordance with the resolutions of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. 194 dated April 27, and the Khokim of the Bukhara region No. 64 dated May 2, 2001, a resolution of the district Khokim No. 64 dated May 2, 2001, was adopted on holding the national holiday of May 9 — "Day of Remembrance and Honor," as well as on providing material incentives to war participants in connection with the 56th anniversary of the victory over fascism in the Second World War of 1941–45.

In order to ensure the implementation of this resolution, with the participation of representatives from the district khokimiyat, the departments of finance, social security, internal affairs, and defense, and the district cotton bank, one-time cash prizes and gifts in the amount of 6,000 (six thousand) soums were presented to 95 Group I and 115 Group II disabled veterans of the Second World War, as well as to 67 war participants. In total, 1,662,000 soums were transferred to 277 participants of the Second World War. On May 9, 160 representatives from all rural and mahalla citizens' assemblies were invited to the "Alley of Memory and Honor" in the district center, where a solemn meeting and tea were organized. All participants of the Second World War were presented with gifts.

In the Kagan district, based on your instruction dated April 28, 2001, I hereby inform you of the following: In connection with May 9 — "Day of Remembrance and Honor," the following events were held in the Kagan district. The district khokimiyat developed an action plan for the Day of Remembrance and Honor, distributed it to the heads of all enterprises, organizations, institutions, rural citizens' assemblies, and shirkat farms, and established strict control over its implementation. 88 disabled veterans and participants of the Second World War were identified, and material assistance in the amount of 528,000 soums was provided to each of them in the amount of 6,000 soums. In cooperation with the "Nuroniy" Foundation, the Council for Spirituality and Enlightenment, and the "Kamolot" Youth Social Movement, "Meeting of Three Generations" and "You Are Always in Our Memory" memorial evenings and sports tournaments dedicated to the memory of deceased teachers were held in general education schools No. 5, 9, 21, 11, 12, 8, 7, 15, 1, 9, 6 of the district. The families of 482 deceased war participants were visited and presented with gifts. The chairmen of the cooperative farm distributed gifts worth 210,000 soums to 88 war participants in their respective districts. The "Nuroniy" Foundation distributed food products worth 112,000 soums to 140 veterans. Landscaping work has been carried out in all cemeteries, streets, villages, and enterprises within the district. Twenty war veterans from the district participated in a commemorative event held in Bukhara. A rally dedicated to the Day of Remembrance and Honor was held in front of the "Mourning Mother Monument," located on the territory of the B. Naqshband cooperative farm. A total of 260 people, including war and labor veterans and district activists, took part in it. At the conclusion of the event, the organizing committee honored the veterans at the table with great respect. Sponsors spent 160,000 soums on the event. The events that took place were recorded on video.

In order to ensure the implementation of the Resolution of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. 194 dated April 27, 2001, "On Incentivizing Participants of the Second World War," the decision of the district khokim No. 228 dated May 3, 2001, was implemented. The main essence of the resolution is the holding of the nationwide holiday of May 9—"Day of Remembrance and Honor"—as well as the material incentives for war participants in connection with the 56th anniversary of the victory over fascism in the 1941–1945 war. This decision of the district khokim was implemented in all village and mahalla citizens' assemblies of the district, and by May 9, 2001, 147 participants of the Second World War living in the district received 6,000 (six thousand) soums each, totaling 882,000 (eight hundred eighty-two thousand) soums.

In accordance with the resolutions of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. 194 dated April 27, 2001, and the regional khokim No. 64 dated February 5, 2001, "On incentivizing participants of the Second World War," a number of works have been carried out in our district. A list of 115 "Participants of the Second World War" living in our district was compiled, and the district post office distributed a cash prize of 6,000 soums to each of them on the eve of May 9 — "Day of Remembrance and Honor." The total amount of money distributed amounted to 690,000 soums. One by one, the residents of our district visited the homes of 115 World War II participants, the families of 56 soldiers who died in the war, 11 disabled veterans and internationalists, 28 Chernobyl disabled veterans, and 63 elderly people living alone; they familiarized themselves with their living conditions and were provided with financial assistance and gifts by parent organizations. Request letters were sent to all collective farms, enterprises, and organizations in the district, and material assistance was distributed.

Similarly, gifts worth 6,000 soums each were distributed to one war veteran living in the "Nuraffshon" farm, 4 international fighters, and 16 low-income pensioners for May 9 — "Day of Remembrance and Honor," totaling 18,000 soums. Additionally, war participants living in the Chelankul, Bogiturkan, and Khalkabad mahallas were given a cup of tea, and each was presented with a robe. Based on the decision of the regional khokim dated May 2, 2001, No. 64, the decision of the Khondor district khokim dated May 5, 2001, No. 453 was adopted, and appropriate measures were determined. 972 thousand soums were distributed in a timely manner to 162 World War II participants in the district. Additionally, 2 million people died during the war. May allowances in the amount of 89 thousand were distributed on time. Financial assistance in the amount of 2 million soums was provided to 500 veterans of this war and labor veterans serving in the rear, as well as families of war participants who died in peacetime. On the occasion of May 9 — "Day of Remembrance and Honor," a district khokim's reception was organized for war participants and labor veterans.

In the district center and on the territory of the Dalmund rural citizens' assembly, sculpture complexes will be reconstructed in accordance with national values, and 7 million US dollars will be allocated for their construction. 300,000 soums were spent.

There are 69 disabled veterans of the Second World War and 30 participants in the district, and on May 8, 2001, at an event held in the "Dustlik" culture and recreation park in the city center, 6,000 (six thousand) soums were solemnly awarded to each of them, totaling 594,000 (five hundred ninety-four thousand) soums. To organize the high-level celebration of May 9, 2001, "Day of Remembrance and Honor" in the Gijduvan district, an organizing committee was formed and approved under the district khokimiyat. The organizing committee, headed by the district khokim, developed measures to hold the national holiday at a high spiritual and moral level.

On the occasion of the Day of Remembrance and Honor, celebrated at the initiative of the President of our country, the payment of a one-time bonus of 6,000 soums to war veterans and disabled veterans has been fully ensured. Based on the decision of the district khokim, 112 persons with Group I disabilities were assigned to the heads of organizations, enterprises, and farms to congratulate them on the holiday at home. Additionally, President's gifts in the amount of 2,478 thousand soums were solemnly placed in envelopes and handed over to 418 war participants in our district. War and labor veterans who were unable to participate in the event were congratulated at home. On May 4–5–6–7–8, similar events were held in all village and mahalla assemblies of our district. Heads of the district khokimiyat, organizations, enterprises, and collective farms, deputies of the regional and district councils, as well as all war and labor veterans, were invited.

The Khokimiyat of Vabkent district informs you that in connection with the holding of the national holiday of May 9 - "Day of Remembrance and Honor," as well as the 55th anniversary of the victory over fascism in the Second World War of 1941-1945, in order to provide material incentives for war participants and to ensure the implementation of Cabinet of Ministers Resolution No. 194 dated April 27, 2001, and regional Khokim Resolution No. 64 dated May 2, 2001, the District Khokim's Resolution No. 202 dated May 4, 2001, was adopted, and the following work was carried out based on this resolution. To date, there are 164 disabled veterans and war veterans in the Vabkent district, of whom 121 are disabled and 43 are war veterans.
